

Work in Community Care Skill Set

State ID: AE143

About this course

Make a difference in the community

Gain the skills to prepare for a career helping others in your community.

You will learn to work effectively and appropriately with individuals and groups in a diverse range of community organisations. This introductory course will also help you learn community advocacy and development.

Gain these skills:

- Organise and complete daily work activities
- Provide first point of contact
- Communicate and work in health or community services
- Work with diverse people
- Provide first aid
- Participate in workplace health and safety
- Comply with infection prevention and control policies and procedures

Next course dates:

Mandurah - Mondays and Tuesdays for 9 weeks starting 12 October

Requirements of the course

This course includes both online study and on-campus study and assessment.

Once enrolled, you will receive information about how to login to our eCampus and you will need to complete a literacy and numeracy quiz to show you can study the course online. Your study will involve accessing content online for 1 study module, followed by a series of online quiz assessments to test your knowledge.

When you finish your online study, there is two days a week attendance for the duration of the course at campus for the remaining modules, plus a compulsory requirement to attend a practical demonstration and assessment session.

This course can help you get ready for your first job, or re-skill quickly for jobs that are available as WA's economy recovers. This course is free for 15 to 24 year olds; or those who are receiving JobSeeker, JobKeeper, Youth Allowance, AUSTUDY or ABSTUDY payments; or concession cardholders. If you're not eligible, you can pay the course fee to gain these skills and become highly employable. See the full eligibility list in the important information tab below. Overview

This course may be offered with a blended, flexible delivery model to enable social distancing measures to be undertaken during the COVID-19 pandemic. This approach may include a mix of online and classroom based delivery, as well as practical and work experience placements. Lecturers will provide any specific instructions if your training delivery style needs to change.
